

Women's Advocacy Day 2004

WHO: Anyone and everyone!

WHAT: "What's At Stake For North Carolina Women?" A day to educate legislators on issues affecting NC's Women in person or from afar

WHEN: ALL DAY MAY 19, 2004

From 11:30-12:30 a press conference will be held at the NC General Assembly, with Rep. Verla Insko; Beth Messersmith-Democracy NC; Monika Hostler-NC Coalition Against Sexual Assault; Beth Froehling-NC Coalition Against Domestic Violence; Arlene McKay-Business & Professional Women of NC; and Polly Williams-Triangle Older Women's League

WHERE: Across North Carolina. The press conference will be held in the pressroom of the Legislative Office Building

HOW: Come to Raleigh or participate "virtually" via phone, fax or email; go to www.ncwu.org for information on bills and how to contact your elected officials

NC | NWOMEN C | UNITED

Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Coalition of NC • American Association of University Women NC • Business and Professional Women of NC • Council for Women/Domestic Violence Commission • Democracy NC • Equality NC • General Federation of Women's Clubs of NC • League of Women Voters of NC • Lillian's List of NC • Mecklenburg County Women's Commission Department • NARAL Pro-Choice NC • National Association of Social Workers NC • NC Alliance for Economic Justice • NC Association of Women Attorneys • NC Coalition Against Domestic Violence • NC Coalition Against Sexual Assault • NC Hunger Network • NC Justice and Community Development Center • NC National Organization for Women • NC Peace Action Education Fund • NC Women Work • NC Women's Political Caucus • Onslow County Council for Women • Orange County Department of Human Rights and Relations/Commission for Women • Peace College • Planned Parenthood of Central NC • Triangle Older Women's League • The Sisko Foundation • Western Carolina Women's Coalition, Inc. • The Women's Center of Chapel Hill • Women's Forum of NC • Women's Resource Center in Alamance County • Women's Resource Center – Hickory