Help continue our success!

NC Women United is run by volunteers and depends on dues from its member organizations and contributions from individual donors like you. How can you help?

Share your time

YES! I can help spread the word about N.C. women's issues. I can:

- Help organize a local Women's Agenda Assembly for Fall 2006.
- Attend a local Women's Agenda Assembly in Fall 2006
- Attend Women's Advocacy Day in Raleigh in Spring 2006 or 2007.
- Write a letter to the editor.
- Speak to local groups or schedule speaking engagements for someone else.
- Hold a house party on important policies and women's issues.
- Sign-up for the NCWU action alert listserv.

- Please contact me about NCWU committees and other ways to get involved.
