

NC WOMEN C | UNITED OPPORTUNITIES

What Can I Do?

Programs like Women's Advocacy Day don't happen without the efforts of many people from across the state. You can get more involved in NC Women United to help ensure these events continue and to

- Get "in the loop" on issues affecting women
- Ensure your issues are heard
- Raise the visibility of your organization

How Do I Get Involved?

Whether you are an individual or part of an organization, there are several ways to find out about current issues and ways you can help empower women at the state level.

- Subscribe to Alerts@NCWU.org to get public policy updates from the member organizations.
- Join as an organization or an individual and subscribe to Members@NCWU.org to get NCWU news and announcements of events sponsored by member organizations.
- Sign up for an NCWU committee to help ensure NCWU's sustainability. Volunteers are needed for the membership, communications, finance, program and governance committees and to coordinate events in local communities.
- Consider service on the NCWU board. Elections will be held in May.
